DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

Donald Trump has done more in a month then Obama did in 2 terms ( 8 years). I think we should just wait because not everything can be perfect, so Donald trump will do bad and do good but if what he does over shadows the bad then he could be considered a good president. It won't creat a spilt because there is already a spilt not everyone agrees with Donald trump but that's why America is great you can have your own opinion and nobody will kill you for it. The only thing I'm scared for is that someone crazy will try to kill Donald Trump because the real " bad guy" is his vice president because when you see what vice president Pence will do then you really want Donald Trump back because Pence will make this into something worst then anything Donald Teumo could ever do. But let's hope that we have a better future and that Donald Trump will do what's right for our county .
